A circular has been issued on 12.04.2005 to all TV channels asking them to strictly adhere to Rule 7(2)(viii) of the Advertising Code, which prohibits advertisement of tobacco/liquor.

The Press Council of India (PCI) is a statutory autonomous self-regulatory body set up under the Press Council Act, 1978 with twin object of "preserving the freedom of the press" and of "maintaining and improving the standards of newspapers and news agencies in India". As per subsection 2(c) of the Press Council Act, 1978; the Council is required to ensure on the part of the newspapers, news agencies and journalists, the maintenance of high standards of public taste and foster a due sense of both the rights and responsibilities or citizenship. Accordingly, PCI has "Norms of Journalistic Conduct" which, inter alia, state that "No advertisement shall be published which promotes directly or indirectly, production/sale or consumption of cigarettes, tobacco products, wine, alcohol, liquor and any other intoxicants".

The Cigarettes and other Tobacco Products (Prohibitions of Advertisement and Regulation of-Trade and Commerce, Production, Supply and Distribution) Act, 2004 prohibits advertisements of cigarettes or any other tobacco products. Rules framed there under have been amended vide notification dated 31.05.2005 to introduce a clear definition of indirect advertisement, which, inter alia, includes ban on advertisement of non-tobacco products bearing the same brand as of tobacco product, the use of particular colours, lay out and/or presentation associated with the particular tobacco product.
